Facing a grave charge—when the lynchers put in their accusation and leave the coroner to look after the grave.

The Philadelphia Inquirer says: "Taft is full of hope for the Filipinos, and thinks they are now fit for Legislation." Gee! If the Filipinos see some of the legislation in this country they'll consider that no compliment.

The United States Supreme Court has decided that it is not a violation of the constitution for recorders' courts to sentence victims to the chain gang. This means that we must go right on as heretofore, fighting shy of the recorder.

It is said that Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw is to become president of a New York trust company. In that event he will have an opportunity to reflect whether "a deficit is a good thing" for his company. Oh, Pshaw!

Before Col. Bryan left for the Philippines his parting words with President Roosevelt were "Go forward!" Advice like that is sufficient to make Col. Roosevelt mark time till he can look ahead to see what it is that Col. Bryan wants him to put his foot in.

Says an exchange: "President Roosevelt intends to take everything away from the railroads." The President may be able to do it but it may as well be said right now that the railroads will do their best to keep him from taking their Senate away from them.

Some people say they would like to see two strong parties in North Carolina. Speaking after the manner of one whose suspicion is aroused, "some people" would like still better to see the Republican party strong enough to put the Democratic party on the mat.

The grave and reverend Supreme Court of the United States has overruled Judge Emory Speer of Georgia. It will be a painful revelation to Judge Speer that the Supreme Court knows so little about the constitution as to reverse any of his deliverances on that instrument.

BOY'S ALMOST TRAGIC DEATH

Suddenly Developed Violent Idiosyncrasy For Drug Used to Relieve Pain for Throat Operation.

Joseph N. Daniels, Jr., the little 11-year-old son of Mr. Joseph N. Daniels, employe of the government at Southport, N. C., died suddenly yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock in the office of Dr. W. C. Galloway, on the second floor of the Murchison National Bank building. Accompanied by his father and the family physician, Dr. J. Arthur Dosher, of Southport, the boy was brought here early yesterday afternoon for Dr. Galloway, who is both an M. D. and an eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, to remove from the boy's throat a sandspur which he had in some way swallowed yesterday morning. To relieve the pain of the operation the thorax was sprayed with cocaine, but it seemed to take little effect. Suddenly, however, after several applications, a violent idiosyncrasy for the drug developed and before the operation was completed, the little fellow's heart gave way and he died in a few minutes, although everything possible was done for him by Dr. Galloway, Dr. Dosher and others. The obstacle in the throat was never removed. The first slight application of the drug seemed to take no effect whatever and at each subsequent spray of the thorax and the application of the instrument, the boy would wince and it was decided before the operation was over to apply no more of the drug nor make any further attempt to remove the sandspur until after the patient was allowed to rest. It was while the physicians were waiting for the second operation that the boy's heart gave away and he expired almost instantly.

The remains were taken to Yopp's undertaking rooms and prepared for burial after which they were sent on a special boat to Southport at 10:30 last night. The boy was delicate and was the pride of a fond father and a loving mother. His taking away under such distressing circumstances was almost more than they could bear. The grandfather and several uncles of the boy left yesterday morning for Raleigh to attend the State Fair but have been summoned home.

Happy Solution of Threatened Breach Between Co-ordinate Branches of Government

CURTAILMENT OF QUARRY

Curtailment of Quarry Output to Provide the Deficiency—Board of Aldermen in Special Session Last Night—Sidewalks.

What is believed to be a happy solution of the threatened breach between the Board of Aldermen and the Board of Audit and Finance over the refusal of the latter body to concur in the award of the contract for Belgian block, which have already arrived, was reached at last night's special meeting of the Aldermen. Chairman O'Brien, of the Streets and Wharves Committee, at the opening of the meeting related the occurrences of the afternoon previous before the Board of Audit and Finance and said that he was given to understand that the appropriation to cover the cost of the blocks was denied because there was not sufficient funds on hand to meet the same. They said the cost of the Fourth street paving and the contract with Mr. Dock for material from the rock quarry would exhaust all the appropriation of $22,000 for permanent work this year, but if the committee could show them where the money could be saved from existing contracts they would be glad to meet any proper expenditure for other work. Mr. O'Brien said he was pleased to report to the Board of Aldermen that Mr. Dock had agreed to abate 2,000 tons of his contract for 10,000 tons of material from the rock quarry and in that event the amount set apart to meet that contract would be reduced by something like $2,500, which would be more than sufficient to meet the cost of the Belgian block for foot of Grace street. Mr. O'Brien said he had reason to believe the Board of Audit and Finance would concur in that settlement of the affair.

Mr. Brown moved that the proposition of Mr. Dock to abate 2,000 tons of his contract be accepted and that the amount set apart for that quantity of rock or so much thereof as is necessary be applied to the Belgian block contract, the Board of Audit and Finance concurring. The motion was seconded by Aldermen Rathjen and Johnson, the last named stating that he believed it was the best arrangement possible to make. The motion was carried unanimously with the exception of Alderman W. H. Yopp, who voted in the negative without explaining his reason therefor.

The Board met at 8 o'clock and continued in session until a little after 9. The Mayor and all members were present except Messrs. Moore and Karr. City Clerk and Treasurer Fowler, City Attorney Marsden Bellamy, Jr., and City Engineer Matthew were also in attendance. The meeting was harmonious throughout. Members had their differences, of course, but they were deferential to one another and everything passed off quietly.

When the Belgian block question had ben disposed of, Mr. Brown called attention to the development in the neighborhood of Front and Meares streets and asked that Meares street be graded between Front and Second streets, as it is now impossible to get over the same, Mr. Brown having cited the instance of a policeman who was unable to have a load of wood delivered in his yard in the vicinity on account of the condition of the street. Upon motion of Mr. Rathjen the matter was referred to the Streets and Wharves Committee with power to act.

Alderman Price called attention to depressions in the macadam at Fifth and Orange and Sixth and Orange streets, left after excavations by the gas company. He said the two places were dangerous to bicyclists and to vehicles passing over the same rapidly. The Mayor said no action by the Aldermen would be necessary as he would issue notice at once for the proper parties to repair the street. In this connection Mr. Price, who is chairman of the Ordinance Committee, gave notice that at the next meeting he would present an ordinance regulating the restoration of streets after all excavations by requiring parties desiring to excavate to furnish bond in sufficient amount to restore the street.

Alderman W. E. Yopp called the attention of the Streets and Wharves Committee to "two mud puddles" at Fourth and Dock and Fifth and Dock. The complaint of Mr. Yopp provoked a laugh. Mr. O'Brien jokingly asked if any pipe was needed for the drainage. That brought forth another laugh and Mr. O'Brien said he would look after Alderman Yopp's complaint.

The question of the repair of the sidewalks, which the Mayor stated was one of the prime objects of the meeting, was then taken up and the discussion consumed the remainder of the session. The Mayor recited the history of the whole affair and said that it was necessary for the Board of Aldermen as a whole, under the new law, to specify by resolution where sidewalks should be repaired, where laid and of what material. The general terms of previous resolutions, he thought were insufficient. The words "when necessary" were used and the question was who is to determine "when necessary." He thought it would be a good idea for each Alderman before the next meeting to look around and see where sidewalks are needed and to furnish the locations with the list of owners to the City Attorney for embodiment into one general and specific resolution, covering the whole work. In response to an inquiry City Attorney Bellamy said he did not think it an illegal discrimination to require some streets to be granolithic and others to be of brick. Mr. Johnson favored having all sidewalks built in the future of granolithic from the A. C. L. to Orange, on Front street, and on Market from Water to Third.

Mr. O'Brien favored taking some action at once; compaints were coming in daily and the committee was ready to proceed at once. Mr. W. E. Yopp favored as a limit for granolithic sidewalks from Red Cross to Orange and from Front to Fifth.

Mr. King made a motion, which the City Attorney reduced to writing, to the effect that in future where brick sidewalks have failed that they be replaced with granolithic or like substance in the territory bounded by north side of Red Cross, south side of Orange, west side of Water and Nutt and east side of Third street, the work to be done under the supervision of the Streets and Wharves Committee and all grades and lines to be given by the City Engineer. Mr. Johnson favored widening the scope of the resolution and including sidewalks in other parts of the city where good streets have been put down. He was against hasty action in so important a matter and thought the legal questions involved should be carefully guarded. The motion of Mr. King was pressed and Mr. Johnson entered an objection, saying that unanimous approval of the resolution would be required to carry it. If necessary the Board could have another meeting the following night. Then everything could be gotten in shape as the City Attorney desired. Upon the objection the matter went over until a subsequent meeting, the time of which was not provided for. The Board then adjourned.

CARNIVAL THRONGS INCREASE

Spectacular Parade Last Night a Big Feature—Boat Races This Afternoon—Shows Satisfactory.

Intermittent showers early yesterday evening did not dampen the ardor of the carnival throngs and the third day of the Red Men's big fete took its position in the past, stamped with the same success of the opening. The crowning feature of the day was a spectacular parade last night along principal streets and back to the carnival grounds. The procession formed at Third and Princess streets, proceeded to Red Cross, thence to Front, down to Orange and back to Princess where the signal was given to disband. The parade was very cerditable and included a platoon of police, the Great Eastern and the carnival military band, the Wilmington Light Infantry, Naval Reserves, Boys' Brigade, fire apparatus, business floats, wheelmen, Red Men and others. The line of the procession was made brilliant by numerous colored torches and other spectacular effects. Messrs. Joe Curtis and W. Fisher, riding a single wheel, in grotesque costumes, attracted the greatest attention and will be awarded the bicycle prize.

The crowds on the midway last night were good humored and conducted themselves with due regard to the proprieties. All the shows did good business and gave fine satisfaction. A number of out-of-town people lent their presence to the big attendance of the afternoon and evening.

To-day a feature of the Carnival will be the mottor boat races, starting from Market dock at 2 P. M. There are anumber of entries and an exciting and novel contest is expected. The race may be witnessed by everybody. The course will be down the river about the "Dram Tree," back to Point Peter and return to the dock.

FISTICUFF ON CORNER.

Messrs. L. O. Smith and R. E. Blake in Mix-Up Yesterday.

Smith, of the firm of S. L. Smith & Son, tinners. Mr. Blake and Mr. Smith, it appears had had some words over the telephone about a business matter the day before and they met yesterday morning at Second and Market. Mr. Blake on his way to breakfast and Mr. Smith in his buggy driving out to some work. Further words passed and the two men went together. The fisticuff progressed until friends of the two men interferred and declared the fight "a draw."

REPORT ON CHARGES

County Commissioners Review Testimony in Convict Inquiry and Return Verdict

TO STATE BOARD CHARITIES

Copy of Findings and Typewritten Report of All Testimony Mailed—"Mountain Out of Mole Hill," It Seems to Be.

After a thorough and most searching inquiry of ten days into the sensational charge of cruelty to convicts at Castle Haynes and at the road camps in the county, the Board of County Commissioners met yesterday morning, reviewed the 132 pages of sworn testimony, brought out during the lengthy investigation and formulated their report to the State Board of Charities, from which the charges emanated upon the basis of the letter to that body from Mr. Preston Cumming of Wilmington. The report speaks for itself and is as follows:

Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 18, 1905.
State Board, Charities, Raleigh, N. C.:

Gentlemen—In reference to yours of Sept. 28th we, on day of receipt, court being in session, turned it over to the grand jury and requested an investigation and on their report, this board proceeded at once to investigate fully all charges made or implied, and now beg to submit our findings, together with a copy of the grand jury's report, and stenographic report of all evidence taken during our investigation.

A physical examination was made by Doctors Akerman, Green, Wood, McMillan of every person confined at the camp and their report is included in papers transmitted herewith.

We summoned Mr. Preston Cumming and all persons named by him, that could be found, to come before us and give such information as they had. As you will observe by Mr. Cumming's testimony, he knew nothing of his own knowledge, his entire evidence being based on statements made to him by ex-convicts.

Mr. Cumming and representatives of the local press were invited and did visit the camp with us to hold the investigation and were requested to ask any questions they deemed fit.

Mr. R. M. Wescott, local representative of your board, requested to be allowed to testify at this investigation in regard to recent inspection made by him and other members of the local committee, representing your board, which testimony is part of this report.

Our investigation covers not only the charges of cruelty, but also the condition of quarters, quality and quantity of food, clothing furnished and medical treatment; said investigation covered a period of ten days, during which time we examined more than sixty witnesses, their testimony making 132 type-written pages, most of it stenographically reported, and all certified as being a true record of all questions and answers.

After hearing the evidence, we read and scrutinized the same carefully with the aid and advice of able counsel.

The evidence satisfies us that Supt. Shearin has discharged his duties faithfully, mercifully and well, and that he has in no instance acted severely or cruelly towards any convict nor has he permitted any of his subordinates to wantonly or cruelly punish or correct them, if any such were ever cruelly punished.

The evidence does not inculpate Supt. Shearin but on the contrary vindicates him and shows that he is an efficient and humane official, one worthy of commendation and not deserving reprimand.

So far as charges against Foreman Hocutt are concerned, we find that unless the evidence of forty or fifty witnesses, some of whom are neither convicts, ex-convicts nor employes, is to be outweighed by the evidence of six or seven convicts and ex-convicts whose credibility no one could vouch for, and whose characters are admittedly bad—then we can see no reason to believe that Foreman Hocutt has been guilty of any conduct that would justify his suspension or discharge.

The evidence does show that the convicts are whipped, but only in cases when punishment was necessary to enforce proper obedience to prison rules and discipline, or to compel the prisoners to perform the duties, to the performance of which they were sentenced, and such punishment was never in excess of what the law would recognize as necessary and humane.

Respectfully submitted,

D. McEACHERN, Chairman.
WM. F. ROBERTSON,
M. W. DIVINE,
H. L. VOLLERS,
W. F. ALEXANDER.

Funeral of a Child.

The funeral of Adelaide C., the little 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Williams, was conducted from the family residence, No. 808 Dock street, at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning, the Rev. J. Marvin Culbreth, pastor of Market street M. E. church, officiating. A number of friends of the deeply bereaved parents were present and the floral tributes were very pretty. The choir which sang during the services was composed of Mrs. W. W. Hodges, Mrs. C. D. Weeks and Messrs. W. W. Hodges and A. S. Holden. The floral designs were beautiful. The interment was in Bellevue Cemetery.

Bicyclist Ran Over Child.

Averhill Winters, a half-grown negro employed at Tienken's barber shop, on Princess street, was arrested at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Policeman W. C. Moore, at Sixth and Castle streets. Quite without the knowledge of Mr. Tienken the boy was engaged in fast riding on Castle street and ran over a 5-year-old son of Mr. W. Van Sellers just as the little fellow was about to board a car with his mother at Sixth and Castle. The boy was fortunately only slightly injured. Winters was locked up at the police station for a hearing before the Mayor at noon to-day.

A PRETTY EVENING WEDDING

Miss Nellie W. Plummer and Mr. Mason G. Burr Joined in Marriage Last Night.

A quiet home wedding, but withal a very pretty one, last night at 9 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, No. 119 South Sixth street, joined in marriage Miss Nellie Wilkinson Plummer, the attractive young daughter of Captain and Mrs. John W. Plummer, and Mr. Mason G. Burr, a popular young business man of Wilmington, being of the firm of the Standard Supply Company. The ceremony was impressively performed by the Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and, conforming to the wishes of both bride and groom, only the relatives of the parties to the marriage vow and a few very intimate friends were present.

The parlors of the home were very tastefully decorated with palms, ferns and cut flowers, the marirage taking place at a pretty improvised altar at an advantageous place in the room. The bride and groom entered from the hallway. There were no attendants, the simplicity of the wedding, according to the wishes of the young people, having been a striking point in its beauty and sincerity. The bride wore a becoming gown of white organdie and carried an exquisite bouquet of bride's roses. The groom wore the conventional black, white vest and pearl grey gloves.

The ceremony over, Mr. and Mrs. Burr received the warmest congratulations of those in attendance and the guests were later entertained at a reception, which continued for some time and during the course of which dainty refreshments were served. A large number of very handsome wedding presents were receivd attesting in no uncertain manner the popularity of the happy couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Burr will reside at No. 618 Princess street and will begin housekeeping at once.

CHINA FOR THE CHINESE.

The long suit of the United States is to use all its diplomacy in the Far East to secure the "open door" in China and guarantee the territorial entity of the Chinese empire so the "open door" will be worth while a Yankee's efforts to walk in. We have been looking to the open door for our expanding trade and we have been pulling for the open door so the trade of this country will have an equal opportunity with that of any other. We haven't got any open door at home but we are powerfully in favor of the other fellow's having an open door, so we kick against any manifestation on the part of the Chinese to get anyways exclusive and show a disposition to save their trade and their country for themselves.

A prominent Russian merchant who is on a brief visit to Russia after a long residence in northern China tells the Asociated Press correspondent in St. Petersburg his views on the future of China, as affected by the result of the recent war. His opinion agrees very closely with other foreign observers and also with the manifest intentions of China. It is a matter of general remark that the Chinese people are being deeply stirred first toward an anti-foreign sentiment and second toward a sort of patriotic sentiment to which they have long been utter strangers, and there is no doubt that they have been influenced by the instruction and by the example of the Japanese, who have systematically organized their influence in the schools, in trade, in the army, and to some extent in the provincial and in the imperial governments. Whether, as the Russian merchant thinks, the aim of the Japanese is 'China for the yellow race,' and whether the Chinese people, under the impulse imparted to them by this movement, may ultimately substitute the aim of 'China for the Chinese,' are questions which it is not easy to answer, but answered in either instance it is one and the same to the United States and European nations. It would mean that the white trading nations would be frozen out by the yellow man. The New York Times makes this clever point of the situation:

"It is reasonable to infer that the people of China, soon or late, will abandon their seclusion and come into relations constantly more intimate with outside nations. It is inevitable that their first guide in this change should be the adventurous and efficient neighbor nation that has itself made a like change. It would be quite in harmony with all historic precedents if the Japanese should use this opportunity for their own advantage, and after that stage had been passed that the Chinese should pass to the stage in which they sought all benefits for themselves, much after the manner of the American protective system. It is true that the professions, and, up to the present time, the actions of the Japanese have been opposed to the line predicted for them, and have consistently followed the line of the open door and equal opoprtunity for all. But they may abandon this latter line and sink to the level of our own exclusiveness. If they do, they will have to face the stern criticism of those who set them the example. Like ourselves, they have a perfect right to try the experiment if they choose, and they will have the right to include in their field of influence the Chinese, who may in their turn also follow our example, and insist on a national monopoly of resources and trade."

Of course, it would be inconsistent in the United States to criticise China for exclusiveness either as to trade or as to keeping foreigners out of the Empire. We are exceedingly exclusive as to our trade and by our protective tariff we make it effectively exclusive, and generally our people have gone on the principle of "Americans for Americans." We have recently taken a great notion into our heads to invade the foreign markets, but if we find the first stumbling block to the Eastern markets to be a policy which we were the first to adopt, we ought to be the last to be offended at it.

HOME INSURANCE COMPANIES.

The Star had an article the other day stating that this is the psychological moment for Wilmington to organize a strong life insurance company. We hope our business men will not consider the matter as one of mere current interest but will give it serious consideration. Now is the time to move in the matter. Strike while the iron is hot.

Our esteemed Richmond contemporary, the Times-Dispatch, puts the matter in a strong light, in this:

"If the South ever expects to build up her own insurance companies, now is the time. Southerners are naturally disgusted with the manner in which some of the big insurance companies at the North have been managed, and are more than ever disposed to bestow their patronage upon home institutions. If a few enterprising men in Richmond would get together and work together they could do a fine service for the companies already established here. Our companies have been honestly managed and have passed through the experimental stage. They are in position to give the people of this section, the people of Virginia, and the people of the whole South safe life insurance upon better terms than it can be written at the North. But they should have the liberal support of the people at home, for that sort of of endorsement is necessary to give them proper standing abroad.

It is not meant by this to say that they have not received home support, but they have not been as liberally supported as they should have been. If a dozen or more of the leading men of the city would agree to make concerted effort in Richmond in behalf of the home companies, we believe that they would be met with liberal response from the general public. It is worth the effort, and the time is opportunity."

Wilmington has one successful fire insurance company, the Carolina, and it has been managed well and made splendid progress. It should do even better now, for North Carolinians have every reason to patronize their home companies in preference to all others. We hope to see our local fire company expand, and at the same time we again urge the monied men of Wilmington not to loose the opportunity to go into the field with a good life company.

CURRENT COMMENT.

A Charlotte lady is suing the Southern Railway for $10,000 for carrying her by this station. This ought to show the railroads how anxious people are to stop in Durham.—Durham Sun.

Owing to urgent engagements at various jails, three-fourths of the Oregon congressional delegation may not be among those present when the next sesion of the national legislature opens.—Chicago Tribune (Rep).

It has been telegraphed all over the country that Tom Dixon was hissed by the audience Saturday night, the implication being that a majority disapproved of the production. Not a word has been said about that other part of the audience which called immediately after the hissing, "Put 'em out," yet that was just as loud and as conspicuous as the hissing—Columbia Record.

It was thought that when wireless telegraphy was introduced into Constantinople the Sultan would deal out honors and rewards with a lavish hand. However, when the apparatus had been explained to him his Majesty grew quite flurried, and characterized it as an invention of the evil one. Mr. Marconi would seem to have grounds here for an action for stander.—London Globe.

The Industrial News seems to be getting along all right with the democrats just now, but just wait until the next campaign is on.—Durham Herald.

One feature in particular about the big warehouse company's plans which will meet with general endorsement by citizens of Columbia is that the election of Governor Heyward as president assures his continued residence in this city after his term as governor expires.—Columbia Record.

Governor Glenn announced Saturday while discussing the Murray case. "I want to say here that I am tired of the juries of the State shirking their duties and sending cases to me that they themselves should decide." Well now that sounds al right, but would not it be better for the Governor to notify the judges and juries that he wil stop considering pardons and thus place all the burden on them, where it properly rests any way?—Scotland Neck Democrat.

If Wilmington's courts are in good working order that town should be able to pull off a hanging or two without much trouble.—Durham Herald.

A Republican daily newspaper is to be started at Birmingham, Ala., by a gentleman who evidently shares Mr. Carnegie's views about the disgrace of dying rich.—Washington Post.

It may be that the officials of the beef trust are afraid to grant rebates to the public on the price of meat because rebates are unlawful.—Rochester Post-Express.

We do not believe the new Republican paper is a necessity in the way of ushering in an era in which there will be the much vaunted "freedom of political thought." We have never believed that North Carolina voters were slaves politically. If any man wants to differ from his fellow in politics and has refrained from doing so for lack of moral courage, that has been his fault, not the fault of the majority who are satisfied with their political convictions and see no occasion to make a change. North Carolina will be much the same now that it has a State paper of Republican political complexion as it was before it had such a paper.—Greensboro Telegram.

It will be long before the last is heard of "The Clansman" and there will never, even in the South, be harmony of opinion regarding its merits. The Columbia State attacks its presentation in that city in a lengthy editorial of great energy, and Mr. B. Palmer McMaster, of Columbia, in a signed communication in The State of yesterday, attacks the play with even greater vigor than the paper does and frankly says that he was one of those who hissed its production in the Columbia Theatre Saturday night. There is a wide and curious diversity of opinion about the matter. The one point upon which there is perfect agreement is that it is wonderfully alluring to the public and packs play houses as no play of recent times has done.—Charlotte Observer.

TWINKLINGS.

—"Henpeck's wife's name is Marjorie, is it not?" "Yes; but he calls her Majority." "How absurd!" "Not so very; you know 'majority rules.'"—Houston Post.

—Miss Slimpurse — "Wasn't Mr. Harduppe terribly embarrassed when he proposed to you?" Miss Gotrox—"Financially, perhaps; not otherwise."—Philadelphia Record.

—Sharpson—"You seem disappointed with that new society novel." Platz—"Disappointed? I'm disgusted. It's a fraud. It isn't even objectionable!"—Chicago Tribune.

—Bacon—"I suppose, like most women, your wife wants the earth?" Egbert—"Well, yes; but I have learned that she doesn't want it on her parlor carpet."—New Yorker.

—"Is it expensive sending your girls to college?" "I should say so! My wife takes advantage of their absence to dress about twenty years younger than she really is."—Life.

—Dr. Fissick—"Well, yes; I suppose you should take some mild tonic" ——Guzzle (eagerly)—"How about beer?" Dr. Fissick—"Oh, no; that's Teutonic."—Philadelphia Press.

—"Dee Gilt made his fortune very suddenly." "You don't say! Is he rich enough to go in the blue book?" "Blue book! Why, he is rich enough to be investigated."—Detroit News.

—Husband — "Business is not so good as it was last year, my dear, so I'm afraid it will be necessary for you to reduce your dressmarker's bills." Wife—"Why, how can I, John? I don't make out her bills!"—Chicago Daily News.

—Father—"From my observation of him last night, I came to the conclusion that young man of yours was rather wild." Daughter—"Of course. It was your constant observation that made him wild. He wanted you to go upstairs and leave us alone."—Philadelphia Ledger.

—Caller—"I wish to contest my uncle's will." Lawyer—"Is the estate worth it?" Caller—"He left one hundred thousand dollars." Lawyer—"Let me see. That's fifty thousand for me, and fifty thousand for the lawyer on the other side. Yes, it's worth it."—New York Weekly.

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, Oct. 18.—The cotton market was more active and advanced a shade on covering of shorts and buying for long account. The close was steady at a net advance of 23 to 27 points. Sales were estimated at 350,000 bales. The opening was firm at an advance of 6 to 7 points and the market soon showed a net gain of 13 to 14 points on covering inspired by a steady, better demand in the English market, smaller interior receipts and a bullish private estimate of the crop placing it at 10,300,000 bales. Around 9.82 for January pressure again developed owing to realizing by yesterday's buyers and a renewal of local bear pressure, but after a re-action of 6 or 7 points the market firmed up again and reached the highest point of the day in the latter trading. The weather forecast was for colder weather in the Southwest, and the big exports for the day, 800,000 bales were accompanied by predictions for a continued heavy movement abroad owing to advances in ocean freight rates from various points. It was also reported that a considerable block of the local stock had been sold for shipment abroad and while the Market sold off 2 or 3 points for the best toward the close under realizing, shorts remained fair buyers and there was some demand from Southern bulls.

FILIPINO WIFE SECURED DIVORCE

Army Officer Wronged Woman and Tried to Marry Again.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Leavenworth, Kas., Oct. 17.—The divorce suit of Conception Vasquez, the Filipino woman, against First Lieutenant Sidney S. Burbank, Sixth Infantry, U. S. A., which has attracted much attention in the army has been decided in favor of Mrs. Burbank. Word reached Fort Leavenworth today that Judge Bates of the court of first instance at Ilo Ilo, P. I., had granted a divorce to Burbank's Filipino wife, had given her the custody of their daughter and allowed her monthly alimony.

Mrs. Burbank brought action after Lieutenant Burbank returned to the United States and after his engagement had been announced to a prominent young Leavenworth woman. The War Department provided counsel for the deserted wife.

Lieutenant Burbank is now being tried by court martial at Ilo Ilo on charges growing out of the case that has just been decided.

GOVERNMENT CROP REPORT.

Frosts in Cotton Belt—There Will Be No Top Crop.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The cotton region weather crop bulletin issued today says:

In the South Atlantic Coast districts and generally to the westward of the Mississippi river, the weather conditions during the week ending October 16 were favorable for gathering crops but in Mississippi, Alabama and Tennessee and in portions of Georgia and Louisiana, heavy rains hindered work and were otherwise injurious. Light to heavy frosts occurred in every Southern State—on the 11th and 12th in the western districts and on the 12th and 13th in the central and eastern—but were not especially destructive, the damage done being confined largely to lowlands in the northern portion of the central and western districts.

Except where hindered by rains in the central portions of the belt, cotton picking made progress. This work is nearing completion in the Carolinas, Georgia and Florida and in the southern portions of the central and western districts. The reports indicate that in the northern portions of the last mentioned districts, where cotton is opening rapidly, from one-third to one-half crop has been gathered. Heavy rains damaged open cotton in Mississippi and Alabama and portions of Georgia and Tennessee, and insects continue destructive in Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas. No top crop worthy of mention is promised.

PLAYING INJURED INNOCENT.

Captain Carter's Counsel Pretending That Evidence is Manufactured.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Chicago, October 17.—Unwarranted methods in seeking evidence against Oberlin M. Carter former army officer, charged with misappropriating almost $3,000,000 from the government, are charged by Attorney Horace G. Stone, Carter's counsel. Mr. Stone has made open charges that hundreds of letters have been opened while in transit. In some instances, he says, decoy letters containing fictitious but apparently highly important evidence, were never delivered to him. Mr. Stone, in making these charges says they do not involve Special Assistant Attorney General Marion Erwin and Special Examiner Johnson, who for several years have been pushing the prosecution of the case. About one hundred letters, which Attorney Stone declared had been tampered with, were placed in the hands of Postoffice Inspector James E. Stuart and he submitted them to an expert on mail.

The report returned to Mr. Stone was that the letters had not been opened.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

Professor W. E. Massey recently tendered his resignation as horticulturist to State Commissioner of Agriculture Patterson. He will go to Philadelphia to devote himself entirely to editing the Practical Farmer.

—The formal dedication of Centenary Methodist church, the handsome new $75,000 church edifice at Newbern, will take place Sunday, October 22nd, and be followed by a week of ceremonies and religious service. Bishop Duncan, of Spartanburg, S. C., will preach the dedicatory sermon.

—Fayetteville Observer: "Saturday night, as Messrs. Archie Baker and James Phillips were walking down Robeson street, the former lost his balance on a foot-bridge across a ditch at the corner of Robeson and Mumford streets, and fell into the ditch. Mr. Phillips, in trying to catch his companion, also lost his balance and fell on top of him, with the result that Mr. Baker had an arm broken in two places."

—Lumberton Robesonian: "Rev. Father Carather, of Wilmington, conducted services here Sunday morning and left for Laurinburg in the afternoon. Beginning with next month, services will be held here every third Sunday at 10 o'clock, A. M., in the Opera House to which the public is cordially invited. The purpose of these meetings is not so much to gain new members as it is to correct wrong impressions that the majority of people have."

—Charlotte Observer: "Mr. A. D. Williams, representing the Charlotte Mattress Manufacturing Company, a new enterprise organized in the city yesterday, has purchased from Mr. W. M. Smith, trustee, the entire plant of the bankrupt W. C. Thomas Mattress Company. The factory, at the corner of West Seventh street, and the railroad, is to be re-occupied, the machinery, which is new and up-to-date, additional equipment is to be purchased and every effort is to be put forth to make this one of the most complete small factories in the State. The fact is well known that this is a good point for such an enterprise, and the new company has a very bright future."

—At Elizabeth City, Thursday night, as the result of a quarrel over domestic affairs, Robert Gibbs, colored, shot his wife with intent to kill. He came very near succeeding, if he really has not done so, as she is lying at the point of death and there is little hope of her recovery. Gibbs fired five shots at her, at close range, all taking effect but one. He used a 38-calibre revolver. They had not lived together for some time, and Thursday night about 10 o'clock accidentally met on Shepperd street, where they began the quarrel and without warning he drew his pistol and began firing. Gibbs then made his escape. He was not pursued, but the police are on the lookout for him.

—A dispatch from Spencer on Friday night says: Articles of agreement were signed here to-night between Prof. Charles Leonardt and Prof. Sam. Morberger, of Indianapolis, to wrestle in Spencer on the night of October 20th. The two men are the greatest wrestlers of their class in the world, and the exhibition in Spencer is expected to eclipse anything ever seen in North Carolina. Leonhardt is the champion Graeco-Roman wrestler of the world, and Morberger holds the championship in catch-as-catch- can for the great West. Both men are here to-night, and are in fine trim. Charles Olsen, winner of the noted contest with Ono and Schoenfeld at Asheville recently, will referee the Spencer match, and will restle the winner.

—A special from Greenville, N. C., says: "Wednesday night Ernest Dixon, of this county, died at Whitsett Institute, where he was attending school. Te remains reached here on Thursday evening's train and were taken out to Mr. Dixon's home in Chicod township. Yesterday morning Mr. Dixon sent for Rev. Q. A. Burroughs, a minister of the Free Will Baptist church, to conduct the funeral service. In the middle of the service, while Mr. Burroughs was kneeling in prayer, and was about to close his supplication, he was stricken helpless and speechless. He was removed to a bed and died an hour later. His death is supposed to have resulted from a ruptured blood vessel. The occurrence caused a sensation among those assembled at the funeral."

—The Raleigh Enterprise has discovered a bright young business woman. Her name is Miss Effie Bond, and she lives at Angier, in Wake county. Two years ago her father gave her a deed for a store house, stock of goods and nine dwelling houses, all located in Angier. Miss Bond was then but 18 years of age, and at that time the stock was worth about $800. A recent inventory shows that it is worth $3,970.46. The enterprise says that Miss Bond has conducted the business unaided. She collects the rents for nine houses and rents a dairy business that nets about $35 per month in addition to everything else. She knows how to buy and what to buy. She recently arranged to buy 1,000 bushels of North Carolina corn to be delivered October the first. Miss Bond is described as bright, pretty, energetic. And the inference is that she is a favorite with young men.

—Fayetteville Observer: "The new public school building in Gray's Creek township, near Alderman, of which Mr. Preston Stamps is principal, was burned to the ground last night at 12 o'clock. The school was to have opened next Wednesday for the first time, and elaborate preparations were already in progress for the school to have a handsomely decorated float in the big marshal's parade on Thursday of Fair week. The building cost $729, and was fully insured. The county payed one-forth, the citizens one-fourth, and the District borrowing the remainder from the State. This loan fund is charged against the special district, in whose favor the loan was made, and must be paid in ten annual instalments and bearing 4 per cent. interest. It has a faculty of three teachers and was to run nine months. The news of the destruction of the building was brought to town early this morning, the messenger saying that it was of incendiary origin. Sheriff Marsh and Superintendent of Public Instruction McByrde at once wired to several nearby towns for bloodhounds, but failed to secure them. They then hurried to the scene of the fire. There is great excitement in the district of the burned school house. Though there has been a great deal of friction over this school among the people of the District, it is not supposed that the fire could have had its origin in that fact, but it is thought that some irresponsible person committed the outrage.

FRANCE GETTING BELLIGERENT.

Will Send Five War Ships to Deal With Castro.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Paris, Oct. 17.—The departure of the armored cruiser Desiax from Cherbourg, yesterday for the Island of Martinique, French West Indies, inaugurates the preparations for dealing with the Venezuelan question with a strong hand if President Castro persists in his present course. The Desiax will stop at Brest, where she will be joined by the cruisers Lavoisier and Chasseloup-Laubat. The three warships will proceed together to the French West Indies, joining the cruisers Jurien-de-LaBraviere and Troude now at Martinique. This will give the division five ships under Admiral Bevoe de LaPeyrere. Their rendevous will be at Fore de France, Martinque. These preparations are precautionary, as the officials here are still hopeful that President Castro will make suitable amends. It is understood that the demonstration, if finally resorted to, will take the form of a blockade of Venezuela.

THE PEOPLE ALL

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means, a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly.
Cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ills.

Plenty of evidence to prove this.

R. A. Biddle, clerk at 19 Market street, residing at 606 Castle street, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills myself for kidney trouble and my wife who also suffered from backache also used them. I never knew anything to act so quickly, I have suffered quite a long time with my back and kidneys. The kidney secretions were very dark and full of sediment. My wife also complained of her back, and when we read of Doan's Kidney Pills in our newspapers I went to R. R. Bellamy's drug store and got a box. We used them with the best results. In my case the kidney secretions cleared up and the pains left my back. We have neither of us complained since taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and it is with pleasure that I recommend them at every opportunity."

For the next sixty days will mail THE MORNING STAR to subscribers outside the city at the following reduced rates:

FOR ONE YEAR $4.00
FOR SIX MONTHS $2.00

Positively, no subscription will be taken at the reduced rates for a period less than six months. For one month the price will be, as heretofore, $1.25 for three months; or, fifty cents for one month.

This offer, as will be noted, is for a limited period only, and is made for the purpose of giving those who appreciate the value of a daily newspaper an opportunity to read the STAR for six months, or more, at a cost of about one and a quarter cents per copy, and then determine whether or not they will continue their subscription at the regular price.

No name will be entered on our books under this offer unless the order is accompanied with the cash.

While this proposition is made primarily to secure new subscribers, old subscribers outside the city may avail themselves of its advantages at the reduced rate provided they pay all arrearages and for not less than six months in advance.

On account of the heavy expense attached to our city circulation department this offer does not apply to city subscribers.

YELLOW FEVER SCOURGE RAPIDLY NEARING END

Five Casese and No Deaths In New Orleans Yesterday—Pensacola Had Eight Cases.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New Orleans, Oct. 18.—The following is the official summary of the yellow fever record at New Orleans up to 6 P. M. to-day:

New cases to-day, 5; total cases to date, 3,349. Deaths, none; total deaths to date, 435. New foci, 2. Cases under treatment, 114. Cases discharged, 2,791.

The yellow fever is rapidly ceasing to be an issue of interest now. With only five new cases and no deaths it seems to be a question of only a few days when no more cases will be found. The affairs of the Emergency Hospital are being rapidly wound up. Two or three patients who are in a critical condition are still there, and as long as their lives are in danger the institution will be kept open for their benefit. The others will be sent to the Charity Hospital as soon as they reach the convalescent stage.

No New Cases at Natchez.

Natchez, Miss., Oct. 18.—As no new cases of yellow fever have been reported for the past thirty-six hours, the Natchez citizens are enthusiastic, but the physicians in charge of the situation are not convinced that the fight will be over until a black frost materializes. Three of the young ladies who are in Chamberlain's sanitarium are reported as dangerously ill. Summary: New cases, none; total cases to date, 182. Deaths, none; total deaths, 8. Cases under treatment, 25.

Improved at Pensacola.

Pensacola, Fla., Oct. 18.—The yellow fever summary to-night is as follows:

New cases to-day, 8; total cases to date, 438. Deaths, none; total deaths, 62. Discharged, 211. Under treatment, 165.

The decrease in the number of new cases has been steady. for an entire week with the exception of Tuesday. It is thought that several patients now under treatment will expire within 12 hours.

About Over in Vicksburg.

Vicksburg, Miss., Oct. 18.—With only four yellow fever patients under treatment, and no new cases during the twenty-four hours ending at 6 o'clock to-night the epidemic here is regarded as practically over. One new case was reported from the country to-day where there are two cases under treatment. Surgeon Guiteras, of the Marine Hospital Service, is confident that the fight has been won.

THE GREAT STATE FAIR.

Change in Arrangements Necessary On Account Death—Other News.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 18.—The remains of General James D. Glenn, brother and private secretary of the Governor, were carried to Greensboro this afternoon accompanied by the immediate family and Governor and Mrs. Glenn. The funeral will be held in Greensboro tomorrow morning. State officials served as pall-bearers from the residence here to the union station.

Changes in the programme of the reception and entertainment of President Roosevelt here tomorrow are made necessary by the death of General Glenn. There will be no breakfast served to the Presidential party at the mansion. Instead, the President will breakfast on the train, the procession, military and civic, will form at the station about 9 o'clock, the escort to precede the guest and party to the Senate chamber in the capitol building, the line of march being up Martin and Fayetteville streets. There the Patterson Loving Cup of the Literary and Historical Association will be presented to John Charles McNeill by the President. There will be informal receptions both at the station and in the Senate chamber. The procession to the Fair grounds will form about 10:30 and proceed up Hillsboro street, probably circling the capitol square first. These are the only changes except that Lieutenant Governor Francis D. Winston will introduce the President instead of Governor Glenn.

The North Carolina Confederate Veterans' Association in annual session here last night re-elected all the old officers: General Julian S. Carr, of Durham, Major General Commanding; Brigadier Generals, First Brigade, P. C. Carlton, Statesville; Second, W. L. London, Pittsboro; Third, James I. Metts, Wilmington; Fourth, James M. Ray, Asheville. There were 150 or more veterans present from all parts of the State.

The North Carolina Federation of Labor was organized tonight by electing W. E. Faison, of Raleigh, president; W. A. Neal, of Charlotte, vice president; A. J. Williams, of Greensboro, secretary and treasurer. Delegates are here from various parts of the State.

LYNCHING IN GREENE.

Negro For Criminal Assault Put to Death Friday.

(Special to News and Observer.)

LaGrange, N. C., Oct. 17.—Word has just been received that Charles Roney, a young negro, was lynched Friday night at Nahunta Bridge near Bullhead, in Greene County, for attempted assault upon a white lady Thursday night.

The negro was arrested and taken before the lady who positively identified him.

The officers started with him to Snow Hill, but were halted at the bridge by a mob who took the prisoner from them and put him to death; but the manner in which he was killed cannot now be ascertained.

Roney was arrested on the charge of a similar crime about a year ago in Wayne county, but was not convicted.

MR ROOSEVELT'S SOUTHERN TOUR

Nation's Chief Received Ovation All the Way From Washington to Richmond

VIRGINIA'S WARM WELCOME

Great Enthusiasm in Historic Capital of Confederacy—President Speaks to Confederate Veterans—Says He Likes Southern People.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, Oct. 18th.—President Roosevelt began his tour of the South at 8:30 o'clock this morning. The departure from Washington was without incident. The President and Mrs. Roosevelt reached the train five minutes before leaving time. The French ambassador and Mme Juserand had been waiting at the station some time to say farewell, and were at once invited into the President's private car. The President was in happy vein. As he alighted from his carriage at a side entrance to the train shed he assisted Mrs. Roosevelt out and then smiled and raised his hat to the half hundred spectators who had gathered to see his departure. There was no demonstration. Four "White Wings" lined up at the curb and lifted their helmets. In the station the public was barred behind the gates several hundred feet away and those who surrounded the last car of the special train were mostly depot employes. Their caps were in their hands as soon as the Presidential party made it appearance and respectful silence reigned. Just before the train moved out the President stepped from the observation room to the rear platform of his car and smilingly bowed acknowledgments to the flutter of handkerchiefs of the crowd.

In the President's party were Mrs. Roosevelt, Secretary William Loeb, Jr., Dr. P. M. Rixey, Surgeon General of the Navy; John A. McIlhenny, of Louisiana, a member of the President's regiment of Rough Riders; John C. Greenway, of Michigan; John S. Elliott, commissioner of the interior for Porto Rico; M. C. Latta and John L. McGraw, stenographer; Henry A. Strohmayer, photographer; Colonel L. S. Brown, general agent of the Southern Railway; representatives of the three press associations; two secret service officers; and a corps of messengers.

Mrs. Roosevelt and Mr. Elliott will leave the party at Atlanta after having visited Roswell, the home of the President's mother, and return to Washington.

The president and his party are making the Southern itinerary in a train of four cars vestibuled together and comprising all of the necessities and luxuries of travel of which the most modern railway equipment is capable. The President's car "Signet" brings up the rear of the flyer. It is a private car which he has occupied on several former occasions. An observation room trimmed in mahogany looks out over a broad platform railed in brass, from which the President will make many of his speeches Three suites of two rooms each, one room of each suite being furnished with a brass bed, comprise the sleeping quarters. In the forward end is a kitchen and dining room. Ahead of this is the compartment car "Penaleno" with two drawnig rooms and seven state rooms. This car is also rich in mahogany trimmings. Next in line towards the engine is the dining car 'Victoria," and then a combination coach, comprising a smoking room and baggage compartment. The train is manned with a picked crew.

The special train will arrive in Raleigh early tomorrow morning.

President's First Stop.

Fredericksburg, Va., Oct. 19.—President Roosevelt made the first stop on his Southern trip at this place. About 200 people were gathered at the station to greet him. The President addressed them briefly from the rear platform of his car. He said:

"My friends and fellow citizens: It is indeed a great pleasure to me to be once more within your mighty State, the mother of Presidents—the Old Dominion, with its soil hallowed by so many memories of the mighty men it has produced, of the mighty deeds it has seen enacted upon it, I know your people well already. I know your history, of course, or I would not be a good American. I wish to say to you with all my heart how glad I am to have the chance of starting through your State to visit the States of the South Atlantic and the Gulf. When I am through my present trip I will have been in and spoken in every State in the union during my term as President. There is one thing that has struck me more than anything else in my journeys from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from the Canada line to the Gulf, and that is in meeting the different audiences that they are fundamentally alike; that wherever you go in this country the average American is a pretty decent fellow, and that all that is necessary in order to make him get on well with the other average American is that they should know one another."

At Historic Ashland.

Ashland, Va., Oct. 19.—President Roosevelt was greeted by the students of the Randolph-Macon Academy and the citizens of Ashland when his train stopped for three minutes here this morning. Most every one in the audience waved a small American flag and cheered as the President appeared on the rear platform of his car. The President's reference in his address to Patrick Henry and Henry Clay awoke applause. He spoke as follows:

"My friends and fellow citizens: It is a pleasure to have the chance of greting you and to be greeted by you. I want to say a word here in a place identified with the names of two of America's greatest statesmen—Patrick Henry and Henry Clay—in the seat of a college which in the Randolph-Macon system commenmorates names of two others of that wonderful group of statesmen which Virginia gave to the Union. I wish here to say a word of recognition to those who are doing this great educational work. In a republic like ours it is a more truism to say that the success of the republic to say upon the trained intelligence of the citizens. The republic cannot succeed if we do not take pains in educating the masters of the republic—that is the people. Self government is not too easy a thing. It is easy enough to live under a despotism. You do not have to do anything; just let the other man govern. But it is not easy to live in a republic where each man has to do his part in the governing, and where he cannot do it if there is not a sound basis of moral and intellectual training; and that is the basis that such an institution of learning as that here, and its knidred institutions give."

A huge bunch of flowers was handed to the President to which was attached a card bearing the following inscription:

"Our President. A lover of the strenuous life and of fair play, and a maker of peace."

Richmond, Va., Oct. 18.—Richmond to-day threw open her gates to President Roosevelt, and during the seven hours of his stay, State and city officials and citizens accorded him a welcome, hearty and sincere. The Presidential train arrived a few minutes after noon and from that moment until 7 o'clock to-night when he departed for Raleigh, N. C., over the Seaboard Air Line, he was given an ovation. His entry into the city was the signal for a wild demonstration from a multitude and the welcoming enthusiasm only ceased when his train continued on its journey through the South.

Mrs. Roosevelt shared in the honors and Mrs. Montague, the wife of the Governor, gave a reception at the executive mansion in her honor.

The President made several addresses, one at the capitol square, before one of the largest crowds ever assembled in Virginia's capital, another at a banquet in Masonic temple where four hundred of the representative people of the Old Dominion were gathered about the board, again at the Lee monument where he spoke to a large number of Confederate veterans, and once more at a gathering of negroes.

His speeches paid tribute to the Confederate veterans. voiced appreciation of the economic and political progress of the South since the Civil War, pointed to his ancestry in which Southern and Northern blood are mingled, and to his birth in the East, and his life in the West, declaring that he believed himself a middling good American; spoke of the preponderance of Southern blood in his regiment in Cuba; referred to the aid through advice that this government can give the people in the coasts and islands of the Carribbean, reiterated the principle of equal justice to all and, in his talk to negroes, congratulated them on their progress as a race.

Richmond Enthusiastic.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 18.—Roosevelt Day in Richmond broke with lowering clouds, but by 10 o'clock the bright October sun shone in a clear sky. The street sweepers and decorators had been at work all night, and the city was in gala attire. Business was practically suspended at 11:30 o'clock and nearly the whole population was on the street, gathered at the depot or lining at the depot or lining the sidewalk around the route announced for the procesion. The decorations of the buildings, public and private, were profuse in many instances, portraits of the President being displayed. At 12 o'clock shap the President's train pulled into the Main Street depot, in which the reception committee had gathered, the approach to the suburbs having been heralded by a blare of the whistles of the Seaboard shops, which was responded to by whistles over the city.

A special committee consisting of Governor Montague; Mayor McCarthy and Captain W. H. Curtis, boarded the President's car and formally welcomed him to Richmond. A short while was spent in introductions on the platform and then the procession was formed, consisting of mounted police, bands of music, military and civic bodies, carriages occupied by the President, the Governor, the Mayor, the reception committee, and the city council.

The line of march was through some of the principal streets of the western part of the city, and return to the capitol square, where the speaker's stand had been erected. All along the route the President was enthusiastically cheered.

When the procession arrived at the capitol square, the President and party called at the executive mansion, and then repaired to the speaker's stand, which was faced by one of the greatest multitudes ever assembled in Richmond. Mayor McCarthy presented the Governor, who, in a brief and most complimentary speech, the sentiments, of which, were cheered to the echo. introduced the President who spoke, commencing at 1:30 o'clock.

A feature of the return of the procession from the west and to the capitol square was the public school children banked for several blocks along Broad street, white on one side and colored on the other.

In the crowds that thronged the capitol square, the side walks and the windows and porticos along the line of march, there were thousands who came here from other Virginia cities and towns, and the country to see the President.

The President finished speaking at 2:20 o'clock when the line was re formed, and the march taken up to the Masonic temple where an elaborate banquet with covers for 400 persons was spread. The hall was magnificently decorated.

The luncheon in honor of the President was delayed half an hour by the unexpected length of the speech in Capitol Square. Calculations had been made very closely, but the President made a number of interpolations in his printed address and was interrupted by the frequent applause, so that instead of the luncheon's beginning promptly at 2 o'clock the party did not sit down until after 3 o'clock. Every seat was occupied, and the service was smooth and swift, so that the entire menu was brought in and disposed of by 4:15 o'clock. The hall was beautifully decorated and an excellent band played appropriate music as the banquet proceeded. At the President's table sat Governor Montague, Mayor McCarthy, Senators Rixey, Private Secretary Loeb, Colo- Daniel and Martin, Surgeon-General nel Archer Anderson, Mr. Joseph Bryan, Mr. J. P. Branch and Judge Bev. T. Crump, of Richmond; Mr. George W. Stevens, president of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad; Congressman John Lamb, and Rev. Ashby Jones.

The President was evidently in the highest spirits, and talked and laughed gleefully and constantly during the meal. As the cigars were being passed around, Mayor McCarthy called to order the assemblage, and apologized for again addressing the company, saying that his only excuse for doing so was that it was necessary for him to say a few words introducing the President. The luncheon had opened with a dozen words from the Mayor, and a brief, but very impressive grace by the Rev. Mr. Jones. The Mayor then proposed a toast to the President, which was drunken enthusiastically, and Mr. Roosevelt rose to respond. He was greeted uproariously, the men at the tables rising from their seats, cheering most heartily and waving their napkins above their heads.

During Mr. Roosevelt's progress through the city, he showed special interest in the school children lined up to greet him, the white on one side of Broad street, the blacks on the other. He was much amused at another point by the appearance of a huge stuffed bear over which was a sign: "Mr. President, have a shot; the only one in Richmond." He laughed heartily at this. As the Presidential party passed the Centenary Methodist church, the chimes in the tower of the church rang out "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," and at another point a hundred and fifty girls from the Woman's college, attired in pure white, sang the same anthem.

Everywhere the party's progress was through streets packed with well dressed people, who cheered the President enthusiastically, and showed in every way their delight at seeing the Chief Magistrate of the country. As Mr. Roosevelt left to-night, he said to a reporter:

"I want the people of Richmond to know what a great pleasure it has been for me to have been with them, and to have had an opportunity to have been with them, and to have had an opportunity of meeting them personally. If they like me half as much as I like them, we-ll call it square, and I'll be satisfied. I like the Southern people—John Greenway here will tell you so—and I can't express how greatly I appreciate the warm Virginia welcome I received to-day."

Mrs. Roosevelt was met at the depot by Mrs. Montague and driven to the Governor's mansion, where a reception was held in her honor, and while the banquet was in progress at the Masonic Temple, luncheon was served.

DARK DOINGS OF INSURANCE

New York Investigation Committee Looking for Comptroller Jordan

HE IS KEEPING OUT OF WAY

Mutual Life Kept House At State Capital and Entertained Members of Legislative Insurance Committee—Perjured Himself.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, October 18.—The district attorney's office was called upon today by the legislative insurance investigating committee because of the testimony of one witness, and the question of an arrest for perjury is now being considered by Assistant District Attorney Rand. The witness in question is George J. Plunkitt, an eighteen-year-old telephone operator in the employ of the stationery firm of L. W. Lawrence & Co., from whom the Mutual Life Insurance Company purchased a great deal of its supplies of this nature. It was brought out in yesterday's testimony that among the vouchers for money charged to legal expense was one for $901 signed by George J. Plunkitt. His identity was not disclosed until today when Plunkitt was called to the stand. He testified as to his employment, and when shown the voucher denied that he had ever signed it. He further denied that he had ever received that amount of money from the Mutual Life Insurance Company or that he had rendered the company any service. Mr. Hughes asked Plunkitt to write his name in ink on a piece of paper which he did. This and the vouchers were then offered in evidence and the similarity of the signatures was called to the attention of the committee.

Shortly after this incident the sergeant-at-arms was sent to communicate with the district attorney's office and soon Mr. Rand appeared. He was escorted to a seat beside Chairman Armstrong, and for a time he critically examined the signatures. All that Mr. Rand would say was that he had been summoned by Chairman Armstrong, and when the chairman was questioned he said the matter was now out of the hands of the committee and it was "up to the district attorney's office." Another feature of the day's hearing was the passage at arms between Chairman Armstrong, Counsel Hughes and James M. Beck, counsel for President McCurdy. Mr. Beck accused Mr. Hughes of misleading the public by not following out his lines of interrogation to the end, and asserted that he dropped a subject before the witness was allowed to explain.

Chairman Armstrong then said that the work of the committee must not be obstructed. The committee, he said, wanted all the information it could get that would be helpful and the witness had placed himself in the position he found himself by his continual evasive answers. Mr. Armstrong said further that every witness will be treated with all possible courtesy. Mr. Hughes then said if he had erred it was by showing courtesies when circumstances justified an entirely different course, adding that evasion would be held up to the contempt it has always received. There was a spontaneous outburst of applause when Mr. Hughes had concluded, which was stopped only by a threat to clear the room.

An attempt was made by Mr. Hughes to-day to get trace of Thomas D. Jordan, former controller of the Equitable Life Assurance Society. Frank B. Jordan was called under a subpoena, and he said he saw his father last labor day. He did not know then that he was going away, and did not know where he was now.

Towards the close of the day's session Mr. McCurdy as being interrogated on the trust companies with which the Mutual Life Insurance Company is connected and the subsidiary companies of the Mutual Life and was still on the stand when adjournment was taken.

TEN PEOPLE KILLED BY TERRIFIC TORNADO

Devastation Visited Upon Illinois Town—Forty Houses Demolished. Two Killed in I. T.

By Wire to The Morning Star

St. Louis, Oct. 18.—A tornado struck the village of Sorento, Ills., 22 miles northeast of St. Louis last night, killing eight persons, injuring 35 others, of whom, three will probable die, and doing a great amount of damage to property. Forty houses were blown to atoms or carried far from their foundations. A complete swath was cut through the town. Everythin in cut through the town. Everything in to debris or blown away. The storm approached from the southwest and swept through the main residence portion of the town. The work of the wind was quickly done, and then followed by a heavy downpour of rain accompanied by vivid lightning and deep thunder. Those who escaped injury were for the time panic-stricken, but finally rallied, and set to work to rescue the injured. So violent was the tornado that some residences were swept away completely and the debris effectually scattered. Houses that remained standing were converted into temporary hospitals.

The storm that wrecked Sorento, deluged Alton, Ill., a few miles South. The strets at Alton were turned into temporary rivers. Ten miles North of Alton, a Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis freight train struck a washout and plunged down an embankment into Branch creek, containing six feet of water. Several tramps seen to swing onto the train previously, are believed to have perished. Engineer Frank Drew, Fireman H. Ballard and Brakeman Albert Patton, were in the engine when it plunged into the creek, and all had to swim for their lives. Patton was so badly scalded that he would have drowned had not his comrades rescued him.

Fire Alarm Damaged.

A rope attached to a fire alarm post by which a heavy safe was being pulled up the hill at Front and Grace streets yesterday morning, jerked the pole down and smashed a fire alarm box, causing a damage of about $25. The negro foreman in charge of the work was arrested by Assistant Fire Chief Monroe, but was released upon his giving security to pay for the damage.

The gain in new building and industry in North Carolina is greater than at any period in the State's history. The North Carolina Home Insurance Company, of Raleigh, N.
